

Embassy
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Nairobi

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- * Applications may be submitted at least 15 days and up to six month prior to your intended travel date.
- * In order to ensure a smooth organization of your trip, please apply well in advance of your intended travel date. Neither the German Embassy nor the Service Provider are able to expedite the process.
- * According to the Schengen Visa Code, the German Embassy is only responsible for processing your visa application if your main destination is Germany - and if you are a resident of Kenya, Somalia or the Seychelles or Sudan.

TLS ACCOUNT

Please check your TLS account regularly for updates on your visa application status and/or document submission request/status. The German Embassy will not reply to any status inquiries during processing time as below.

PROCESSING TIME

For INCOMPLETE applications: up to 45 days

For COMPLETE applications: up to 15 days

Document submission for INCOMPLETE applications

- * Missing Documents - as indicated by TLS during your appointment - or as requested by the Embassy via your TLS account - need to be submitted to TLS within 7 days after your appointment or until the deadline given by the Embassy. Failure to do so will in most cases lead to a refusal. Documents sent or delivered to the Embassy directly - without explicit request to do so - will not be considered.
- * The Embassy reserves the right to request more information or documents at any time during processing - for incomplete or complete applications.
- * Submission of a complete application is no guarantee for issuance of a visa

Checklist for filing your TOURISM application (NOT for family/friends visit)

The printed and signed checklist has to be submitted to TLS during your appointment. Please provide ALL required documents/information as stated below.

Submission of an incomplete application will extend the processing time to up to 45 days or might result in a refusal right away.
